Here.
Drop the Mask.
Come Out.
(No, Not Queer;
but for Real.)

John Kennedy was beginning "to see" what was on the end of every fork... Through his relationship with Mary Pinchot Meyer; JFK was getting his eyes "opened" (Third Eye Open). LSD still legal in 1962... Mary Pinchot Meyer stayed over at White House numerous times in 1962 when Jackie was out of town; Jackie did not mind; and remained best of friends with Mary Meyer. (Mary Meyer gunned down in broad daylight Oct. 12, 1964; "execution-style" while walking along the Georgetown canal towpath. The patsy, Negro day laborer Ray Crump Jr, surprisingly was acquitted in high profile trial by brilliant Negro defense attorney, Dovey Roundtree; for the fee of one Dollar!)

To the "Neo-Cons" of his day: The Military, CIA, The Anti Communist Crowd; John Kennedy's ideas and actions were Treason in the drive to American Empire. Especially his not well hidden relationship with the magnetic Mary Pinchot Meyer; this ongoing love tryst elicited and provoked an irrational emotional reaction of Rage from domestic adversaries.

Our Healing is at Hand: Will we function as grains of yeast to leaven the whole loaf? As leaders and role models for others?
