Welcome back folks from our lovely Summer in the Miami Valley!

Some of us journeyed to Chicago to attend the United States Psychotronics National Conference; and we will get a report of the events there that transpired...

Rainbow Eagle put on a large, successful Labor Day weekend Conference at Green Deer Woods near Bellefontain Ohio on Flying Saucers and their implications for us in these times (with heretofore secret Native American knowledge now being revealed). Rainbow Eagle may be our speaker in January, 2009.

Don't forget the Second Street Market down at Second and Webster Streets, downtown on Saturday Mornings... What with coming Earth and political changes; might be handy to make friends now with some local organic farmer folks. Saturday Mornings from real early until about 2pm (get there early). And while you're there, check out "Crepe Boheme", an original French Creperie featuring sweet and savory crepes (Classic Ham & Cheese Crepe (scrambled eggs optional); The Amazing Turkey Crepe (with Grapes, Walnuts & Cream Sauce); Salmon in White and Pink Coat Crepe; Crepe with Sweet Potatoes, Carrots & Raisins in a Creamy Sauce; Dessert Crepe with Nutella & Banana; Dessert Crepe Dulce de Leche Crepe)

And Luan and Dave Heit in Yellow Springs run the Yellow Springs Food Coop; another vital resource with times becoming unsteady. Call Luan at (937) 767-1823 to get involved.

Our Friends Milan Pajev and the crew at Fulton Farms make available the "Happy Box", all Organic and local produce delivered to your door once per week! Call Milan at (937) 572-7529 for details to get started. www.fultonfarms.com
